SCHOOL DIVISION GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

The Superintendent, administrative team and School Board shall develop, maintain, monitor and revise the School Division Strategic Plan and its goals, objectives and strategies. The plan shall be comprehensive to include the mission of the school division and goals, objectives and strategies necessary to accomplish the mission. The Plan will be a “living” document and may have goals or objectives changed as goals/objectives are met and new goals/objectives are appropriate.

1. The Strategic Plan shall have the same components as previously adopted Six-Year Plans.
2. The goals, objectives, and strategies shall be based on multiple sources of data and include benchmarks and data points to be followed.
3. The Plan will be used to plan, develop or revise division programs and set funding priorities for the division.
4. The Strategic Plan shall be the foundation for the annual School Board/Superintendent priorities.
5. The Plan will be reviewed at least twice annually and the priorities will be revised based on the accomplishments or changes in need for the school division.
6. The Strategic Plan will be placed on the school division webpage. Public comment may be requested as additional goals or objectives are proposed.
