EVALUATION OF THE SCHOOL BOARD

The School Board will conduct a self-evaluation annually in June to ensure proper discharge of its responsibilities to the community. The self-evaluation will include two elements:

- A. self evaluation instrument
 - B. evaluation of the School Board/Superintendent priorities.
1. The procedures for the completion of the School Board Evaluation are outlined in Policy AFA.
 2. At the completion of the self-evaluation instrument and evaluation of the priorities, the Board shall discuss the results of the evaluation in a School Board work session.
 3. Depending on the completion of the self-evaluation instrument and priorities, the discussion will occur at the June or July work session of the Board.
 4. At the completion of the evaluation process, the Board may discuss alterations for the evaluation process for the next year.
