

SCHOOL BOARD GOVERNANCE AND OPERATIONS

File: BCF-R

ADVISORY COMMITTEES TO THE SCHOOLS BOARD

The School Board shall appoint advisory committees in the areas of school health, gifted education, special education, parent advisory, and career and technical education. The members of the committees will serve for one-year terms without compensation.

1. The Superintendent or designee will provide a listing of the proposed members at the September Board meeting of each school year for review.
2. The advisory committee membership will be approved at the October meeting.
3. If changes in the membership are required due to vacancies throughout the school year, the Superintendent or designee will provide the Board with proposed members at the next work session of the Board.
