GROUPING FOR INSTRUCTION

1. The principal shall group or assign the grouping of students for instruction based on the tenets found in Policy IHA.
2. Grouping shall remain flexible in order to ensure the appropriate placement of each student.
3. Some students may be grouped together for one activity and then may be regrouped for a different activity.
4. Students shall not be permanently assigned to a group with no opportunity to move to another group.
5. Information regarding the grouping of students shall be available for parents to review.
6. If a parent requests that a student's grouping be changed, the request shall be in writing and submitted to the principal. If the principal does not agree to the requested change, the principal shall provide an explanation to the parent and will attempt to resolve the request in a way that meets the most appropriate needs for the student.
