ADVANCED PLACEMENT CLASSES AND SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Students and their parents are notified of the availability of dual enrollment, Advanced Placement classes, career and technical education programs, and Academic Year Governor's School Programs, the qualifications for enrolling in such classes and programs and the availability of financial assistance to low-income and needy students to take the Advanced Placement exam. Students and their parents are also notified of the program with a community college to enable students to complete an associate's degree or a one-year Uniform Certificate of General Studies concurrent with a high school diploma and eligibility for course offerings at the University of Virginia for students who have successfully completed all courses in the high school program of studies in a particular content area. The Superintendent promulgates regulations to implement this policy, which ensure the provision of timely and adequate notice to students and their parents.
